

Elevate Charities Annual Charity Golf Tournament

Monday, September 21, 2026

Elevate Charities will continue its success with our Annual Charity Golf Tournament. We are continuing our success at Fairbanks Ranch Country Club. Founded in 1984, this country club features 27 championship holes of golf nestled in beautiful Rancho Santa Fe, California (San Diego), designed by Ted Robinson Sr. and John Harbottle.

Elevate Charities invites you to join us for an inspiring day on the course as we come together to strengthen our mission of uplifting seniors in need and giving back to nurses furthering their careers with scholarships. Your sponsorship not only supports a memorable tournament—it fuels lasting impact in our community.

Elevate Charities will be partnering with Amble Clothing this year to offer you some new and exciting styles. Amble Clothing creates “casual performance” apparel designed for golfers who move seamlessly between the course, work, and the outdoors. Inspired by the California coast, their sustainable, technical fabrics keep you protected from the sun, comfortable in changing conditions, and looking sharp all day. Built for timeless style and steady innovation, Amble makes versatile pieces that perform on the fairway and fit effortlessly into everyday life. We will give the golfers an easy shopping experience with an additional opportunity to shop Amble Clothing styles that will offer an expanded shopping experience for all our players and attendees.

This tournament is more than a day of golf—it’s a chance to touch the lives of seniors who are quietly struggling all around us. In 2025, 69.6 million older adults in the United States rely on Medicare for their healthcare. Yet half of all older adults live on less than $29,740 a year, leaving many without the financial means to cover essential needs and the healthcare costs Medicare does not fully provide.

Your sponsorship has the power to make a real, immediate difference. By supporting this event, you help bring comfort, dignity, and hope to seniors who often go unseen but who deserve our care and compassion. We invite you to join us as a sponsor, underwriter, and participant—because together, we can brighten lives, strengthen our community, and show our seniors that they are never forgotten. The available sponsorship levels are outlined in the pages that follow. Thank you for considering this meaningful opportunity to uplift those who need it most.

Thank you in advance for your support of Elevate Charities.
